

YDT

5

YKS DİL

DENEME

AD: _____

SOYAD: _____

SINIF: _____

NUMARA: _____

1

Bu testte 80 soru vardır.

1 - 8. sorularda cümlede boş bırakılan yere uygun olan sözcük veya ifadeyi bulunuz.

1. Although he was born healthy, the great German composer Ludwig van Beethoven suffered from a gradual ----, leading him to have a total loss of hearing in 1819.
- A) consciousness B) deafness
C) eagerness D) blindness
E) awareness
2. While applying for a position in a company, it is quite important to give the impression of being ---- and determined so as to surpass other applicants.
- A) dull B) incapable C) reluctant
D) apathetic E) confident
3. Nutrition and dietetics, a popular programme to study at university for high school students in Türkiye, ---- many fields of study from the elderly dietary needs to clinical studies in food industry.
- A) encompasses B) disregards C) captivates
D) amputates E) endangers
4. Many people believe that ---- traits are far more important than physical appearance as the latter may be deceptive and thus it may lead us to misjudge about a person we have just met.
- A) ability B) difficulty C) personality
D) accessibility E) capacity
5. Mostly preferred in balconies owing to its decorative value, Hoya Carnosa, which is also called as wax plant because of white stains on leaves reminding melted wax, is an eye-catching plant of which star-shaped flowers ---- nice scent.
- A) see off B) take in C) rely on
D) give off E) get away
6. No matter what we tried to make it work, the new air conditioner did not work ----, so we decided to give it back and claim a refund.
- A) properly B) awkwardly C) accidentally
D) fortunately E) bitterly
7. It is highly probable that some professions that are popular today ---- in the next few decades just as the ones that ---- popular once such as chimney sweepers, tinsmiths or lamplighters did.
- A) will have disappeared / are
B) had disappeared / will be
C) will disappear / used to be
D) may have disappeared / can be
E) would disappear / were
8. When the British explorers ---- foot in the Nilgiri Hills Area in India in the first quarter of 1900s, the three tribes of the Blue Mountains ---- in an isolated way from other societies in India and the rest of the world for centuries.
- A) would set / were living
B) will be setting / may have lived
C) set / will be living
D) have set / had lived
E) set / had been living

9 - 15. sorularda cümlede boş bırakılan yere uygun olan sözcük veya ifadeyi bulunuz.

9. Nowadays, characters in video games are different ---- previous versions; in that, their appearances are pretty more realistic ---- virtue of advancements in programming.

- A) with / in
B) from / by
C) between / upon
D) at / from
E) in / at

10. In Johannesburg, there is a natural tunnel formed ---- lots of trees blooming purple ---- which walking or cycling may be a peaceful activity.

- A) by / through
B) out of / towards
C) in / for
D) with / by
E) along / down

11. ---- it may require to wait silently in harsh conditions day and night to capture a shot of a rare species, nature photographers are seen as really patient people.

- A) Whether
B) Unless
C) Although
D) As
E) Meanwhile

12. ---- renewable energy has gained popularity in the past ten years, the rate of carbon emissions has not had a tendency to decline to the desired point yet.

- A) Since
B) Moreover
C) Until D) As long as
E) Even though

13. In June 2023, the hottest day was recorded in human history up till then and ---- climatologists fear that hotter ---- are ahead of us.

- A) all / one
B) some / the other
C) most / ones
D) ones / one another
E) much / none

14. There are not any shopping centers in most historical towns where population is less than one thousand, so residents ---- buy things from local shops ---- go to cities nearby which have shopping centres.

- A) such / that
B) so / as
C) either / or
D) not only / as well
E) whether / or

15. ---- driving fast, a pilot in motor car races should also control his car so as not to go off the road.

- A) In spite of
B) Thanks to
C) By mistake
D) Apart from
E) With regard to 16 - 20. sorularda parçada numaralandırılmış yerlere uygun olan sözcük veya ifadeyi bulunuz.

In lifelong learning, there is always room (16) ---- improvement. Those (17) ---- oppose this idea are most likely to make no headways as even teachers and masters, (18) ---- students, claim that each day is a new opportunity to learn something new. Especially in this century when technological advances are competing with (19) ----, it is vital in many professions to keep up with the latest advancements. Since the beginning of the history, learning has been the most crucial stimuli (20) ---- people walk further and probably it will always be.

16. A) along B) in C) for
D) from E) beneath
17. A) who B) to which C) whose D) to whom E) which
18. A) drop off B) keep up
C) go along D) live on
E) let alone
19. A) the other one B) others
C) another one D) one another
E) ones
20. A) to have made B) making
C) to be made D) being made
E) make

21 - 28. sorularda verilen cümleyi uygun şekilde tamamlayan ifadeyi bulunuz.

21. ---- due to various reasons among which the leading one may be overpopulation, no one has a right to use it recklessly ignoring that it is limited.
- A) Though the fresh water sources may be polluted by industrial waste materials
B) Even if new methods are developed to enhance the cycle of water on Earth
C) Despite the fact that fresh water has always been limited especially in summers
D) Contrary to pessimistic predictions depicting the Earth as a desert without water
E) As fresh water has become more precious than it has ever been throughout the history
22. Forgetfulness is not pertinent to the elderly as ----.
- A) people in all ages may experience it because of illness, stress or some other reasons
B) people whose ages range from 65 to 95 are more likely to experience it than the ones who are between 55 and 65
C) children, teenagers, the young, the young adults and those in middle ages never experience forgetfulness
D) it occurs due to the reasons which are mostly seen with the elderly, not with the young and young adults
E) it is a prominent sign of getting old because brain cells responsible for memory may not make connections to remember properly
23. Some adventure seekers are fond of exploring hidden waterfalls or lakes that few people have a chance to see, however ----.
- A) they should have been warned against the risks a wild forest may have had
B) they should be equipped with necessary things as there could be unexpected situations
C) they are pretty safe as thousands of people roam to see them throughout the year
D) the waterfall was discovered in 1950s by a geologist wandering the area with his family
E) hundreds of people died there while trying to climb the rocky hill beyond those trees

24. Many people are mostly inclined to think that starting a new job, taking up a hobby or going to university after mid - 40s and 50s are challenging and unnecessary, yet ----.

- A) for many people fifties are the best time to retire and spend time with grandchildren giving up all worldly things like working
- B) each person is unique and there is not a certain time in life to initiate and achieve something as it is never too late to learn
- C) memory weakens after 40s and 50s, so it is best to energize yourself before the 40s if you want to learn something new
- D) they are right to some extent as it is challenging to comply with changes and advancements at work and university after 40s
- E) it is inevitable to agree with them as mid-40s and 50s are the time when people need to slow down and relax and give up trying

25. It is wrong to think schools are the only places and the first step of gaining awareness of some global environmental issues needing urgent action ----.

- A) however, there is definitely no other option for kids but schools in terms of learning something about those problems
- B) as parents should be role models before schools by teaching basic things on household waste management, recycling or saving water
- C) single-use items may be more practical and hygienic, but using them at school for lunchtime produces too much solid waste
- D) since parents are too busy all day and even at weekends to take their children to scientific events, exhibitions, cultural trips
- E) because what are taught in schools related to basic global issues in the environment cannot be taught anywhere else

26. Although most people carry reusable bags while going shopping to contribute to lessen plastic waste, ----.

- A) plastic bag use in shopping has largely decreased as people are more aware of the risks involved
- B) people are becoming more and more conscious each day of how negatively sea animals are affected by plastic waste
- C) it is widely known today that the less packed foods are bought, a cleaner and healthier environment we will have
- D) fortunately, it has been finally understood that buying less packed foods will lead to less solid waste
- E) they buy so many packed foods that reusable bags pale in comparison with the amount of waste out of packed food packages

27. Creative ideas always make a difference in all sectors as they lead people to think out of the box, ----.

- A) featuring a new product, for example, without giving its name by just mentioning the well-known rival equivalents may be pretty effective in advertising
- B) so it does not mean creative ideas always help people perceive things in a better way and see the big picture
- C) as it has been claimed for long that using too much creativity in advertising may yield to the opposite of what is desired
- D) because making an already complicated thing more complicated under the colour of creativity will not help them at all
- E) sometimes the most basic, the most well-known and the easiest way of something, not creative ones, bring the success

28. According to a recent theory focusing on inheritance in the field of psychology, ----.

- A) a new vaccine has been developed against new variants of the disease that cause defects in the eyes and ears
- B) wealth of one is inherited by spouse or children, if any, in case of a sudden death if he does not have a will, according to law
- C) some of our fears, phobias, likes, dislikes and personal traits were passed to us from our ancestors through genes
- D) mental health tests are accessible on the Net, yet they should be applied, if necessary, by psychologists only
- E) some women might go through postpartum depression after giving birth, which usually characterizes with low energy and feeling sad

25. ----, it is best to communicate directly with the coordinator of it as he/she is the most authorized person to tackle with them.

- A) If some problems arise regarding the budget or implementation in a joint project
- B) Unless the first payment is done for the extracurricular activities in the project
- C) Since the goals of the project were mentioned in the first page of the report
- D) If you do not have an opportunity to talk to the coordinator of project
- E) You do not have to do whatever a coordinator of a project wants

26. Tactile pavements serve as directing and warning signs ----.

- A) because there may be more applications for visually impaired students
- B) for visually impaired citizens in some specific routes to lead them to their destinations safely
- C) in order to help him hear the distant voices better as well as closer ones
- D) so as to design special areas for orthopedically handicapped people in subways
- E) but it has not been put in practice yet due to some technical problems

27. Quality in studying process is more important than quantity, ----.

- A) in case you feel stressed and lose your motivation of studying for your exams
- B) yet, doing exercise less does not necessarily mean you will gain weight
- C) which means you could have studied all night instead of going to bed early
- D) even if you do not understand anything in science lessons at all
- E) in that, how many hours you study does not matter but how you study does

28. ---- and an emergent gastric lavage, the process of cleaning stomach from the food that caused poisoning, may be necessary.

- A) Some plants were poisonous and marked with a warning sign "not edible"
- B) Stomachs caused by consuming too many fizzy drinks or fatty food
- C) When touched by a fly attracted by the smell emitted from poisonous plant
- D) Food poisoning, the symptoms of which may include diarrhoea and cramps in stomach, may be a serious matter in many cases
- E) The patient refused to have a gastric lavage for fear that it would harm her stomach